

CONSIGNMENT POLICY

Consignment appointments are preferred and can be made Tuesday - Friday between 11:00am and 4:30pm or Thursday evenings until 7:30pm. Please call to make an appointment.

Only in-season clothing will be taken for resale (jewelry, accessories, handbags and shoes, in excellent condition, are taken at anytime). The Oakmont store will accept houseware and furniture consignments year-round.

Ambiance reserves the right to price all merchandise or reject any merchandise.

We will evaluate your items while you are here and return anything we do not feel would sell at the end of the appointment. If you choose to drop off items and leave, any items we can't use will not be held, but donated.

Ambiance does not accept the following labels:

Kmart or Wal-Mart brands, Alfred Dunner, Albert Nipon, Esprit, Dress Barn, Karen Scott, Donna Morgan, Pierre Cardian, Charter Club, McNaughton, Fashion Bug, Gantos, Liz Sport, Positive Attitude, Lee, Casual Corner/Petite Sophisticate, Evan Picone, Laura Ashley, Karen Kane.

All items must be freshly laundered or dry cleaned and on hangers when bringing them in. We will accept current style clothing and select vintage items. Selected juniors styles will also be accepted.

Absolutely no items will be considered that have any trace of pet hair on them or smell of moth balls or storage. Extremely wrinkled clothing will not be accepted.

All items have a 90 day selling period. Items not sold after 30 days are automatically reduced by 25% and 50% after 60 days. If you choose to have any unsold merchandise returned after 90 days, there will be a $20 annual consignment fee paid the same day you drop items off. There is no fee for items left to be donated after 90 days.

If you choose to have your items returned there will be a two week pick up period. If prior arrangements are not made, anything not picked up in two weeks will be donated.

You will receive 50% of the selling price for your items that sell. Checks and sales vouchers will be mailed within the first week of each month. Consignors wishing to have a tax form to write off any unsold donated merchandise must call and request one to be mailed at the end of their 90 day selling period. By law, Ambiance cannot assign a tax write-off value to donated merchandise.

Although every precaution will be taken, Ambiance is not responsible for the loss or damage to any items left for consignment.
