

consignment policy

Consignment split is 50/50. Consignors are welcome to use their money as store credit or receive a monthly check. Checks are mailed within first week of each month.

All items have a 90 day selling period. Items not sold after 30 days are automatically reduced by 25% and 50% after 60 days. If you choose to have any unsold merchandise returned after 90 days, there will be a $25 annual consignment fee paid the same day you drop items off. There is no fee for items left to be donated after 90 days.

We will go through your items while you are here and return anything we do not feel will sell. You must wait until we have gone through all of your items in order to have unusable items returned to you. If you choose to drop off items and leave, any items we can't use will not be held, but donated.

Ambiance reserves the right to have additional sales and markdowns on merchandise without notice to the consignor.

If you choose to have your items returned You are solely responsible to call Ambiance two days prior to the end of your consignment period to arrange for items to be pulled and picked up. If prior arrangements are not made, anything not picked up within ONE WEEK OF EXPIRATION WILL BE DONATED.

All items must be freshly laundered or dry cleaned and on hangers when bringing them in. We will accept clothing with in the last 2 to 3 years of style and select vintage items. Please do not be offended if we do not accept items as our skilled staff must rely on prior and current experience of what sells best in our stores.

Absolutely no items will be considered that have any trace of pet hair on them or smell of moth balls or storage. Extremely wrinkled clothing will not be accepted.

KNOCKOFF MERCHANDISE OF ANY KIND WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Only in-season merchandise will be taken for resale.
(jewelry, accessories, handbags and shoes, in excellent condition, are taken at anytime.

Although every precaution will be taken, Ambiance is not responsible for the loss or damage to any items left for consignment.
