

a few guidelines

These are just some quick tips we've written in order for you to reap the benefits of the best sales and timely appointments at the store. All items are selected based on our experience of what does or does not sell well at Ambiance. Please use your best judgment since these are not set rules and we only have the space to take only what we feel will sell the best.

If clothing has been in your closet and not worn for three or more years, it is most likely NOT going to be a seller. Please remember, outdated does not mean vintage. All vintage pieces should be on trend or timeless in impeccable condition.

We pride ourselves on our selection of one-of-a-kind pieces. Our customers are looking for statement styles in luxurious fabrics. It may be that fabulous dress you know you'll never wear again, but it probably isn't your old black t-shirts.

There are a few types of clothing that we do NOT accept at all. These items include:

- Wedding gowns, wedding attire
- Socks, pajamas, robes, undergarments or nylons that do not have original packaging or tags on them
- Tennis shoes, running shoes or shoes that are not in excellent condition
- Golf or ski apparel
- Basic skirts, blazers, suits, blouses

Check the labels on your items. Some brands that have NOT been great sellers and probably won't be accepted for consignment are:

- Junior Labels from JCPennys or Macy's
- Gantos
- Petite Sophisticate
- Kmart or Walmart brands
- Target or Old Navy brands
- Lee
- Casual Corner/ Petite Sophisticate
- Evan Picone
- Laura Ashley
- Casual Corner
- Dress Barn
- Fashion Bug
- Alfred Dunner
- Albert Nipon
